SOBAKAWA CLOUD PILLOW

We covered eggs with 4 different types of pillows and dropped a ten pound weight onto each one. Under the traditional pillows the eggs are easily crushed! However, the Air Beads in the Sobakawa Cloud Pillow absorb the shock so the eggs don't crack. You'll feel like you're sleeping in the clouds as 10 million air beads softly cushion your head.

The all-new Sobakawa® Cloud Pillow™ is an amazing pillow over 300 years in the making. Based on traditional Asian buckwheat pillows, the Sobakawa® Cloud Pillow™ is filled with over 10 million air beads. It's like sleeping on a virtual sea of clouds!

Unlike other pillows, the Sobakawa® Cloud Pillow™ can:

- Provides comfort and firm support for your head and neck
- No more fluffing and flipping like ordinary fiber and memory foam pillows. This is truly a stay cool pillow
- Lasts sleep, after sleep, after sleep

Ordinary pillows are hard and flat like bricks. The Sobakawa® Cloud Pillow™ is crescent-shaped to follow the contours of your neck and shoulders. As you move, 10 million air beads move with you and absorb your movement, maintaining both comfort and support. After sleeping on the Sobakawa® Cloud Pillow™ you'll awake rested and refreshed, every morning!

Don't forget the special Sobakawa® Cloud Pillow™ pillow cases! Specially designed to fit the Sobakawa® Cloud Pillow™'s unique crescent shape, these pillow cases breathe and continually adjust to the shape of the pillow, allowing the air to flow freely and keep your head cool. As a special bonus, you'll receive one free pillow case with every Sobakawa® Cloud Pillow™ you purchase!
